

Every night about twelve o'clock I slowly opened his door.

In my hand
I held a light covered over
with a cloth.
And I stood
there quietly.
Then, carefully,
I lifted the cloth, just a little, so that a
single, thin,
small light fell
across that eye.

For seven nights I did this, seven long nights. Always the eye was closed, so it was impossible for me to do the work.

For it was not the old man I felt I had to kill; it was the eye, his
EVIL EYE.

On the eighth night...

I put in my hand, with the covered light.
Suddenly the old man
sat straight up in bed
and cried,

Who's there??!

I stood quite still.
For a whole hour
I did not move.

Slowly, little by little, I
lifted the cloth,
until a small,
small light
escaped from under it to fall
upon - to fall
upon that
VULTURE EYE.

It was open-
wide, wide
open, and my anger
increased as it looked straight
at me.

I could not see
the old man's face.
Only that eye, and
the blood in my body became like
ICE.
